Reference Letter for Dr. James Cecy

This letter is written in response to Dr. James Cecy's request for a reference as he develops a curriculum for Corporate Training Meetings, particularly focused on Ancient Business Principles from the Wisdom Literature of the Bible.

I am honoured to provide this reference. To put my comments in context, I will briefly describe my background and relationship with Dr. Cecy, followed by an overview of his training and coaching ministry in our part of the world.

My name is Emanuel Tundrea, and I serve as one of the leading faculty members of the Griffiths School of Management and IT at Emanuel University of Oradea (EUO), Romania. I earned my Ph.D. in 2009 from the University of Nice, France, in Software Engineering, and served as an Associate Researcher at the Institut Universitaire de Technologie de Nice et de la Côte d'Azur, within the Laboratoire Informatique Signaux et Systèmes de Sophia-Antipolis, from March 2002 to January 2009. My academic record includes over 20 publications in high-impact international journals and conferences, two university textbooks, and one book on discipleship. Beyond academia, I am extensively involved in training across Europe, focusing on two main areas: discipleship and parenting in the digital age. Four years ago, I was honoured to receive the Fulbright Visiting Scholar Award from the U.S. Department of State for research on ORFan genes in the United States, and I currently serve as the Fulbright Ambassador for Romania.

I share this background because it highlights how deeply I value the people who have shaped my life and ministry — and one of the most significant among them is Dr. James Cecy. My life and impact today would not be what they are without his influence. I met Dr. Cecy nearly fifteen years ago through the European Leadership Forum, where he not only mentored me personally but also invested in me through a unique, peripatetic discipleship approach — teaching by example, side by side, letting me see his life and his teaching, as we served together in multiple contexts across Eastern Europe, especially in Romania. He came in person in Eastern Europe and has ministered widely through student conferences on purity, family seminars on relationships, and leadership conferences for pastors and ministry leaders. His impact here has been remarkable. Three of his books have been translated into Romanian. His book The Purity War alone has received over 1,500 requests in print. His conferences have drawn hundreds of participants, and his video seminars and radio messages have reached thousands. The feedback we have received — particularly from his Q&A sessions — consistently praises his biblical insight, clarity, and deep pastoral heart. Dr. Cecy's ability to speak both to the mind and the heart is one of his greatest strengths as a communicator and trainer.

Given his personal integrity, professional excellence, and proven teaching ministry, I consider Dr. James Cecy an exceptionally qualified speaker and trainer. Should there ever be an opportunity for him to visit us again, even for a few days, we would consider it a great blessing.
