To Whom It May Concern,

Thank you for taking time to consider my recommendation that you partner with my friend, mentor, and spiritual father, Dr. Jim Cecy. I have had the honor of knowing him and his wife, Karon, for over twenty years. I came to know Pastor Jim through a pastors' prayer movement in Fresno where ministers gathered on a weekly basis to pray and encourage one another. I would see Pastor Jim meet with countless pastors and walk them through difficult times. He has counseled hundreds of ministers through crisis, of faith, of ministry, of family of life.

There have been times where not just pastors but city leaders have met with Dr. Cecy for counseling, advice, and direction in their Christian Walk and even their political challenges. Our city has been recognized by national ministries as the most united community of clergy in America. He has been at the forefront of this unity by meeting with ministers and encouraging them to engage their community and their fellow ministers in their area.

The church that he pastored is a respected and integral part of our city. They have launched more than a handful of ministries that serve worldwide. Dr. Cecy walks with para church ministries and provides them guidance, instruction, and accountability.

I recommend him to you strongly. He will be a blessing to you and your organization.

Thank You.
