Re: Pastor Jim Cecy
To Whom It May Concern

It is with great respect and sincere appreciation that I write this letter in support of Dr. Jim Cecy. I have had the privilege of taking three of his classes, and through each one, I have witnessed his remarkable ability to communicate timeless truths with both clarity and depth. His wealth of knowledge—particularly in Ancient Business Principles drawn from the Wisdom Literature of the Bible—is both profound and practical, making his instruction highly relevant for today's corporate and leadership environments.

Dr. Cecy is an excellent instructor whose teaching style engages learners and ensures that the material is not only understood but retained. His balance of biblical insight and real-world application equips individuals and teams to grow in both competence and character.

Beyond the classroom, Dr. Cecy consistently demonstrates genuine care for others. He has blessed the men on our campus through sponsorships and, at times, by personally assisting with transportation needs. His actions reveal the true heart of a pastor—compassionate, servant-minded, and devoted to the well-being of others.

I am deeply grateful for all that I have learned under Dr. Cecy's instruction, as well as for the moments when he has provided personal encouragement and wise direction. He is a man of integrity, faith, and purpose, and I wholeheartedly commend him to any organization or group seeking training that blends biblical wisdom with practical leadership principles.

With gladness and appreciation, and
In His Service <><
