To whom it may concern:

It is my pleasure to recommend Pastor James Cecy's forthcoming teaching on business management and practices.

Pastor Cecy is a prolific and insightful author, having written a number of books on subjects ranging from personal accountability to sexual fidelity. His leadership expertise is demonstrated by the fact that he established and served as senior pastor and teacher at one of the strongest Christian churches in the greater Fresno, CA area – Campus Bible Church.

Dr. Cecy and I first met some years ago when I had the opportunity to sit under his teaching at the European Leadership Forum, the largest annual conference for leadership training and networking in Europe. His teaching and writing have always spoken to a wide range of hearts, combining clear insights and practical information with principles drawn from the Bible. He possesses a great wealth of experience and wisdom as a consultant and mentor. His forthcoming curriculum on business management and practices draws from those years of knowledge and hands-on practice, and I'm looking forward to profiting from the material when it comes out.

Sincerely,
